Dearest Alice;
I that I would write you you a few lines this evening as I am quite lonesome and soon.

I had a very enjoyable ^{trip} and wish you were along.

It rained all day Sunday and I got ^{very} wet soaking.

How is every little thing around Arcadia?

I have been staying with my Granddad most of the time, but I am up in Mich now.

Friday we went to the Chances often ⁽¹⁾ if you will ever for get our old fights.

I can assure you that I have changed a great deal and hope we may someday be real good friends, don't you?

I don't think you will ever see me again, because I am happy and perfectly content out here even if I am a long way from home.

Well my cousin is trying to get a squint of this cemetery and heard a nice sermon.

Next week I am going to Cleveland and visit a cousin, I have a garage job near Cleveland and will probably go to work in a short time.

The crops look good out this way and the Farmers expect a boom this year.

Well out for a while this after noon, the roads are awful rough and it is pretty cold.
